Longer Conversation 1

W: Is that Mr. Black speaking?

M: Yes?

W: This is Carol. I am going to rent your flat you mentioned on the newspaper. I saw the advertisement this morning, so I call you now.

M: Oh, I see. Would you like to have a look at it if you are free?

W: Yes. I want to see it this afternoon. But the price seems to be a bit higher. You know, I am just a secretary in a small company.

M: That's not the problem. If you really want to rent that flat, I will give you a good price. What about 2,000 per month?

W: That's still too expensive for me. You see. The flat is not so convenient to the metro. It may be 5 miles away. So what about 1,700?

M: Let me think it over. 1, 800 is OK. The former rent was that price. I can't cut down the price any more.

W: All right. Can I meet you in the nearby metro station at 4 P.M if possible?

M: No problem. I will wait for you there. Once you have arrived, just call me. I am in a black coat and blue jeans.

Longer Conversation 2

M: Hi, Honey. Are there any good programs on TV now?

W: The TV series are boring and the entertainment programs make me feel sleepy. And there are so many annoying advertisements.

M: Exactly. So what about the sports channel. I heard there is going to be a basketball match between Australia and China.

W: Really? May be you can watch the performance of Yao Ming, one of your favorite players.

M: I hope so. But I am not sure whether he has been recovered yet?

W: What do you mean by saying that?

M: Oh. This tall guy has hurt his arm when he was trying to protect against his opponent last match.

W: That's too bad if China is lacking for this center.

M: That's true. But nowadays there are some new faces and they also play very well. May be we can look forward to that.

W: By the way, did you still remember the final result between China and Australia last year?

M: Let me. Ur.... 91 to 89. Oh, no. 91 to 88. China finally won that match.

(M=Man, W=Woman, Q=Question)

Passage 1

Some people don't need a mailbox to send a message. They use a bottle instead. Here are two stories about the people who sent a message in a bottle. Both of them are true.

In 1956, a sailor from Sweden was on a ship. He wrote a letter, asking others to write to him. He put the letter in a bottle and threw the bottle into the sea.

Two years later, a man found the bottle on a beach in Italy. He read the letter and showed it to his daughter. She was 18. As a joke, she wrote to the sailor. They began to write to each other. In a few months, they were married.

Here is the second story. Back in 1924, a boy from Arkansas wrote his name on the back of his picture. He put the picture in a bottle and threw the bottle into a river.

The bottle was not found for many years. Then one day a man named Bill picked it up on a beach in Florida. He pulled the picture out of the bottle and looked at it. He could hardly believe his eyes. The boy in the picture was his old friend, Tom, from Arkansas. Bill had not seen Tom for 25 years. Somehow the bottle had come to the right place.

1. What is the main idea of the whole story?

A. Sailing on a ship.

B. Sending a message in a bottle.

C. Sending a message to Italy.

D. How to send a message.

2. After the sailor wrote a letter, what did he do?
- A. He threw the letter away.
  - B. He put the letter in a bottle.
  - C. He found a bottle on a beach.
  - D. He posted it by airmail.
3. What did the sailor and the girl from Italy do when they were young?
- A. They grew up together.
  - B. They went to the same school.
  - C. They had not known each other.
  - D. They worked in the same office.
4. How was Bill when he looked at the picture of Tom?
- A. He was unhappy.
  - B. He was surprised.
  - C. He was tired.
  - D. He was angry.
5. At the end of the story, about how old were Bill and Tom?
- A. 12 years old
  - B. 25 years old
  - C. at least 25 years old
  - D. 52 years old

Passage 2

When I was about 12, I suddenly developed a great passion for writing poetry. I gave up all my other hobbies, such as collecting stamps, and spent all my spare time reading poetry and writing it. This habit of writing poetry on every possible occasion soon got me into trouble at school. If a lesson did not interest me, I would take out my notebook and start writing poems in class. One day while I was busy writing a poem during a geography lesson, I looked up to find the teacher angrily standing over me because I was not paying attention. He tore the poem up, with a warning not to waste time in his class. All the same I was convinced that I had written a good poem, so that evening I wrote it out again from memory. Not long after, I read about a poetry contest and I decided to send in my poem. Weeks later I got a letter informing me I had won first prize. Everyone at school was very surprised except that geography teacher, who watched me more carefully than ever.
